TOPIC: The Impact of Travel

Let's discuss travel experiences - Was Mark Twain correct when he wrote that travel is fatal to prejudice, bigotry, and narrow-mindedness? How far does one have to travel to experience change? Have your travel experiences affect how you see your friends, community or country? Have you adopted new customs or culinary creations from a favorite destination? Put on your walking shoes and come share your travel stories so we may all learn.

Locked In One Shoe

By Michael S. Davidson, Ed.D.
(Revised November, 2014)

The lace knotted so tight
It locked me into one shoe
And I couldn't stay bent over
Long enough
To get it to undo.

So I amble around
One shoe locked and one shoe off
Wandering, wondering
What to do.

Can a man live
With one shoe off
And one locked on?

I can eat I guess
I can have sex I guess
I can read I guess
I can teach I guess
I can sleep I guess
I can even walk I guess.

I guess it's OK
To live
With one shoe off
And one locked on.
